

Stakeholder Event

24 June 2013, Radisson Hotel, Leeds, UK

Programme

- 10:30-11:00      Registration and Coffee/Tea
- 11:00-11:10      Opening
- 11:10-11:40      Sun, Sea, Sand & Silicone: An ESRC funded project on Cosmetic Surgery Tourism
Ruth Holliday (PI), David Bell, Olive Cheung, University of Leeds; Meredith Jones, University of Technology Sydney; Elspeth Probyn, The University of Sydney; Jacqueline Sanchez Taylor, University of Leicester
- 11:40-12:10      Linda McAvan MEP
Labour Member of the European Parliament for Yorkshire and the Humber
Will speak about her role on the EU Public Health Committee and medical tourism
- 12:10-12:40      Rachel
Patient
Will talk about travelling to Poland for cosmetic surgery following weight loss surgery
- 12:40-13:45      Lunch
- 13:45-14:15      Chris Stone
C A Stone Medical & Legal Ltd
Will explore some of the pitfalls of cosmetic surgery and how these can be exacerbated in the context of cosmetic surgery tourism
- 14:15-14:45      Angela Chouaib
Secret Surgery Ltd
Will discuss the role of cosmetic surgery tourism agents, best practice and the role of the internet in ensuring a positive patient experience
- 14:45-15:15      Laurence Vick
Michelmores LLP solicitors of Exeter London and Bristol
Will speak on the reach of UK courts in pursuing medical malpractice claims abroad: "Medical tourism – legal implications and complications"
- 15:15-15:30      Coffee
- 15:30-16:00      Keith Pollard
Intuition Communication Ltd.
Will talk about cosmetic surgery abroad: "What patients say... what they want... and what they get"
- 16:00-16:30      Inward and outward implications for the NHS of Medical Tourism: An NIHR-funded project
Neil Lunt, Daniel Horsfall, University of York; Jo Hanefeld, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
- 16:30-17:00      Discussion
- 17:00              Close